“ So sorry to hear this sad news. Anne and I worked at Colonial for almost 20 years and she was a wonderful nurse, coworker and mentor to me. No one cared more for the residents than Anne. My condolences to all who loved her and cared for her. God Bless.

“ Ann was my neighbor once along with Clarence and boys. Also she was a coworker and one of colonial health care's best nurses.

“ So sorry to hear of Anne's passing. Sincere condolences to Clarence and family. Through grade school and highschool we often ended up in the same classroom. She was an intelligent, kind, and Understanding person who often had a bemused look that said "I know exactly what's going on". She was a truly fine person who will certainly be missed by many.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Anne was a wonderful person throughout her life. We were classmates at MA. I was surprised when I learned that Anne was the mother in law of Missy (Raymond) whom I have known forever and a day. May you Rest In Peace Anne, you fought hard to the end when God opened his arms for you to come home. Sending love, prayers and condolences.
