“ Armond,
Anyone that knew you knew you were a GET IT DONE GUY. YOU could always find a job and the help to do it. Armond worked on every building that Rose and I had. No matter what you figured it out. You were always there to help friends and family. You always enjoyed a Yankees Red Sox bet, or a trip to the VFW to fix floor tile. You will be Sadly missed.

“ Armand,
Where to begin... I couldnt believe it when Sheila told me how long you two had actually been together. We new each other before Kyle was even born! So for almost 17 yrs I dealt with all your sarcasm Well to be fair you dealt with mine in return!! I looked forward to our back and forth banter every time I saw you. I loved how you always had so much enthusiasm in your voice when you saw Kyle, Harley, Anthony and me. The last thing I did was punch you in the arm and tell you to cut the shit and talk to your daughter!!! I am so glad you were able to be yourself again before you left this earth. And mend your relationships I will miss our smart ass conversations. We will miss you Armand.

“ They say things happen for a reason. It's hard to understand sometimes. Now it's your turn to watch over my daughter and I'll watch over yours. You are free of your struggles and ailments.
Love,
Sheila

“ Love you always and forever Dad. Just like you always used to say... "If I don't see you tomorrow Mick, who gives a shit!" (smiling and laughing every time you said it.) Miss you already.
Love Mick
