“ I would most definitely consider my Grandmother one of my best friends. She has been there for me for every part of my 33 years of life. I had a hard time accepting that she was gone, and will forever have a hard time accepting it. However, I found a poem that I wanted to share today at her memorial, and was not able to as I could not make it. This poem brings me solace knowing that she will forever be there, maybe not physically, but spiritually Marilyn will always be around keeping an eye on me and my family. I love you so much Grammy - and until I see you again, I will forever cherish all of our memories and all of the subtle ways you show you're still watching over me!

Don't Cry for Me

Don't cry for me now I have died, for I'm still here I'm by your side,
My body's gone but my soul is here, please don't shed another tear,
I am still here I'm all around, only my body lies in the ground.
I am the snowflake that kisses your nose,
I am the frost, that nips your toes.
I am the sun, bringing you light,
I am the star, shining so bright.
I am the rain, refreshing the earth,
I am the laughter, I am the mirth.
I am the bird, up in the sky,
I am the cloud, that's drifting by.
I am the thoughts, inside your head,
While I'm still there, I can't be dead.

“ Beautiful and so true. She will never be far from us. She was our shepherd and forever will be. She loved all of us more than life. Lynne

“ What good memories I have of Marilyn. No matter how much time passed between the times I saw her, it was like no time had passed at all. We would just start chatting about our lives. My deepest sympathy goes out to her family. I am sorry I won't be to the funeral as I am still afraid of Caronavirus, but I will be there in heart. Rest In Peace Marilyn
