Mark was a kind, generous and caring man who will be greatly missed by his loving wife; his brother, John "Jack" and wife, Cheryl of Portland; twin brother, Christopher and wife, Donna of New Jersey; brothers-in-law, Clayton Copp, and wife, Lucy, and Clifton Copp and wife, Lorna; sister-in-law, Diana Copp; and his church family and friends. “ I am so sorry to read about Mark's passing. He was a great friend growing up with my brother Packy at Morrill School and Lyman Moore and Deering. He was always so nice to me as a young girl trying to follow her big brother and his friends....Deepest condolences to his family.

“ Mark was a wonderful friend when we were in school. I remember just hanging out with a few others enjoying life and chatting about school or whatever. Chris and Jack were great guys too. Although I remember thinking we were somehow going to get in trouble with Jack as I recall he was older and in charge. I think David Quimby was around some times too. I am thrilled to read of his long and happy marriage to the love of his life and even more so of his great love for Jesus. I believe we only spoke a couple of times after highschool as our lives all went different ways but good memories and a beautiful smile of a gentleman with a big heart have always remained. To Brenda and the rest of his family: I send my sincere condolences. May God comfort you all as only He is able with His love that is beyond understanding.
