WESTBROOK- P. Yvonne Goulet, of Westbrook, died on November 14, 2018. She was born in Portland, June 16, 1939 to the late Armand Joseph and Mary Isabel (Haley) Goulet.

Yvonne graduated from Boston College Graduate School, St. Joseph's College of Maine, and Cathedral High School in Portland. She served in various capacities at Church World, a diocesan newspaper published in Portland. In addition to writing a regular column, Yvonne worked as associate editor, editor, contributing editor, or editor-at-large between 1972 and 2005. As editor, Yvonne won six major awards from the Catholic Press Association. Yvonne was also an English teacher at Catherine McAuley High School; Anna Maria College in Paxton, Massachusetts; and Mount Aloysius Jr. College in Cresson, PA, in the 60s and 70s.

After retiring in 2005, Yvonne enjoyed taking care of her little yard at Patio Park, she continued her love of folk dancing, painting, theater, and other artful endeavors, and enjoyed the company of her family and friends. Known for her quirky sense of humor, strong faith in God, steadfast friendships, and the ease with which she made new friends, Yvonne will be sadly missed by many.
