November 15, 1926 - October 25, 2019

WINDHAM—Roberta “Betty” Kimball Wyman, 92, passed away on Friday October 25, 2019. She was born on November 15, 1926, a daughter of Robert and Mary (Page) Smith. Betty grew up in Windham and was a graduate of Windham High School in the class of 1945. Upon graduation, she went to work at the Pentagon as a typist, before marrying her husband, Robert “Bob” Cushing Kimball. The two moved back to Maine, where Betty was employed at Dunn & Bradstreet before starting a family, raising four daughters. Bob and Betty were married 38 years before his passing in 1985.

Betty loved going to the beach, listening to music and dancing. She enjoyed traveling and like a true Mainer, enjoyed a good lobster roll. On April 1, 1993, she married Ira Wyman Jr. and the two shared 25 years of wonderful companionship until his passing in October of last year.

Famous for her silver footwear, Betty loved loaning out her collection to her grandchildren for their special occasions.

She is survived by her daughters, Joan Triantafyllou and her husband Michael, Cynthia Kimball, Susan Lombard and her husband Brad, and Pamela Asherman and her husband Ted; grandchildren, Stefanos, Kimon, Justin, Barry, Alan, Andrea Rae, Ned, and Sarah Bea; 5 great grandchildren; as well as Ira’s family, daughter, Joyce Lauzier and her husband Jim, and grandchildren Juliette, James, and Jennifer.

She was predeceased by both of her husbands, Bob Cushing Kimball and Ira Wyman Jr.; and siblings, Robert Smith Jr., and Goldie Pitt.

Per Betty’s request, no services are being held. As Betty and Ira enjoyed working on the annual Windham alumni banquet, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Betty’s name may be made to the Windham Alumni Association, c/o Tammy Haskell, Treasurer 264 Gray Road, Windham, ME 04062.
