

Roger Leo Landry

November 15, 1940 - July 27, 2020

Westbrook-

ROGER LEO LANDRY, 79, passed away peacefully July 27, 2020 at his home in Westbrook. He was born November 15, 1940 to Leo and Irene Lampron Landry. He grew up in Westbrook with his parents, brother Raymond and sister Dorothy. He enlisted in the United States Army and served in the Vietnam War as a helicopter mechanic. After serving his country, he attended SMCC and became a licensed electrician and was Staff Sergeant in the Maine National Guard. He worked at Stultz Electric and then SD Warren from where he retired in 2011. For many years, he owned his own business, Landry's Electric Service. As a young man, he briefly raced at Beechridge Motor Speedway, where he claimed his car was "held together with chicken-wire". For many years, he taught First Aid courses through Adult Ed programs. He was an avid gun collector, enjoyed old movies, listening to music, camping and canoeing, especially down the Allagash and St. John Rivers. Trips to a friend's hunting cabin in the fall were a favorite pastime, but instead of going out hunting, he would stay behind to simmer batches of his famous spaghetti sauce. He loved to make people laugh and one of his most impressive talents was his motorboat imitation. He even made the Portland Press Herald when he auditioned for Maine's Funniest People performing that very routine. He didn't win, but he made a lasting impression. Roger is the kind of person you can't help but remember. He stays in your heart.

Roger is survived by his partner of 25 years, Sandra Lavallee Grady, her son Joseph and Kelly Grady of North Carolina, Joseph, Patrick and Shane Grady of Florida, daughter Rosalie Grady and Craig Burnham of Westbrook, grandchildren Ayriel Chase and Elliott Armbruster, Violet and Addy Chase of Portland, Ethen Chase and Madison Harnois, and Fe Chase of Westbrook, Rayne Chase and Henry Redman of Westbrook, son David Grady and Crystal Huntley, Jasmyn and Noah Grady of Biddeford.

Roger is survived by his daughter Anissa Landry Grant, husband Randall, grandson Travis and Nicole Grant, of Windham, granddaughter Ashley and Mackenzie Audet of Farmington, and his daughter Aimee Landry of Virginia.

Roger is survived by his brother, Raymond Landry, Westbrook and sister Dorothy and Michael Rusczyk, South Harpswell, and many nieces and nephews. He will be missed by a wealth of family and friends.

Roger is predeceased by his parents, ex-wife Dolores Tanguay Landry, granddaughter Amanda Lynn Grant and his sister-in-law Rita Landry.

“ i'll never forget Roger singing "Thunder, Thunder Down the River Road" during my retirement Coffee at Sappi FPNA. Now you can drive Ralph Gallagher nuts again with your ventriloquist dummy and routine. Another Westbrook Mill icon passes into the hereafter. Lots of fond memories of all your antics during my 39 years at Westbrook. Rest in Peace Brother Landry.

Respectfully,

“ I worked with Roger at S.D. Warren back in the 70's and he was the kindest man with the best sense of humor that I had met. It was his sense of humor that drew me to him right off. I'm so sorry for your loss and you can be very proud of him. Rest in peace, Roger.

“ Roger, Our relationship goes back to 1973 when I met you when you was hired to work at S.D. Warren. We made friends right away. The things that you and I got involved in doing together at work. One day I needed to install some plates in a device called a Panalarm. So we went to see George Daly to see if Roger could help me with the installation. George said yes, so Roger and I went on our way. Little did George know that the size of the plates were 1 inch by 2 inches. George would have killed us if he knew how big these plates were. Retiring in August 1999, I would visit Rog at work so that I could write down the lyrics of the songs that he made up about people at the mill. Our close ties went on to the day of his passing. I will miss you greatly and when we meet again in heaven and we will continue these antics

Good by ole Buddy,

“ Roger! You were the best!! I really enjoyed working with at "the mill". We had some great times. I was always impressed when you made up songs or did impressions. What a clever mind. The world has lost a treasure. My condolences to your family. Rest in peace my friend.
