“ Ron and I spent many childhood memories together, His mom was my second mom. Ron and I would drive people crazy (especially our church youth group leaders), talking in our duck talk way I sounded like Donald Duck, he sounded like Yackee Doodle. We did Chinese fire drills, and drove for hours together. Would run and start sledding at his house, scoot out into the road, and go past my house. When i bought a 1959 Fiat that would never start He and my sister would push it so I could jump start it. On and on I could go but suffice it to say my childhood wouldn't have been the same without him. We had many good memories and he will be missed.

“ I didn't know Ron long, but knew he was a special person the first day I met him. His passion to help family and friends goes beyond anyone I have met and his love for his family was amazing. This includes not only blood relatives, but anyone he cared about. I have been honored to call him my friend, family and my “work husband”!! You will be missed my dear friend but rest now. ❤️

“ I was blessed to work with Ron at PebbeCreek in Arizona. He was one the best guy to work with. I loved the stories about him and his beautiful bride. I thought that was his wife name. He would show pics of them both in western wear made them look like the 1800 wild wild west. He was great to be around. No worked harder then he did. The world lost a great man and heaven gain one. I love you brother. God bless RIP

Ron was a great mentor for me in my early stages of golf course management. If it wasn't for him I would never be the multi-tasker and leader I am today, i will truly miss him.

I went to Scho with Ron so many years ago. I have enjoyed reconnecting on face book and seeing his family and friends. He was a great classmate and will be missed.

We were very sad to hear of Ron's passing. Ron and his wife were the best neighbors we ever had. This world has lost a good man.
