“ Dear Mr. Chuck Barr and Family,

I am saddened to hear of your loss of son, Steven. I know your family from long ago, back when your family lived next to my mom and dad, Frank and Mary Sottile. I remember playing with your daughter, Linda. We were great friends. I probably knew Steven, but he would have been a younger brother. My brothers are older than Steven by a couple of years.

I am sad also because you have lost your dear wife and face this loss of your son at a challenging time in your life. I hope that you have Linda with you and I do not know your other son's name.

My Dad, Frank, is still alive at 90 and will turn 91 in June if God keeps him with us. I lost my Mom 3 and a half years ago.

I moved to Maine just before my Mom passed. I have a daughter and two grandchildren in Portland, Maine. I have been wondering if your family was still in Gorham. It was just by chance that I saw the obituary in the Sunday Portland Paper.

Please feel free to contact me, Angie Sottile, at my Massachusetts Cell Phone number 413-658-8079. I would be so blessed to be able to visit you and share your life stories of all the years since you and your family left Simsbury, CT so many years ago,

I am sorry that I am not able to be at Steven's celebration of life tomorrow at the church in Gorham. You have been in my prayers now for the week and you will be in my prayers for days to come.

God bless you and my peace shine upon you.

Sincerely,

Angie

“ So sad to hear of Steve’s passing. I worked along side him for the best of 25 years. He was always a friend and helped me through many challenges we encountered in the oil business. When he pretty much fully recovered from his shattered ankle and all its challenges, I figured he could live through most anything. You will be missed by all who knew you. Rust in peace buddy !!!

“ Wow. I am just shocked and saddened to learn of Steve's passing. He was such a sweet guy. We had some great times in High School and for a few years after, but I had not seen him in years. So sad not to have kept in touch. My thoughts and prayers are with his father and siblings. Sending love and prayers to you.
