“ I haven't seen or spoken to Steve in many years. Since he left my area of PA but he was a wonderful man, who will be sadly missed. He was kind, funny, and loved the Patriots. He and my brother always joked around during football season and had a back and forth banter because of course we are Steeler fans. I am so sorry to hear of his passing this morning and my heart and prayers are with his family and loved ones. Rest In Peace Steve. It was lovely knowing you and experiencing Some moments in time knowing you an what a great guy you were.

“ I enjoyed our daily afternoon poker games when Steve and Jean lived here in Florida, I didn't get enough time with Steve but the time we all had together was great, I'm really going to miss him.

“ Eating Alaskan King Crab, Corn on the Cob, and Steak while watching WWII docuseries ... sometimes it is the simplest memories that are the strongest.
